SPONSORSHIP Opportunities

September 26-30, 2018, the Mashantucket Pequot Museum & Research Center in Mashantucket, Connecticut is honored to host the Tenth Biennial International Fields of Conflict Conference. This multidisciplinary forum will discuss aspects of battlefield archaeology, Indigenous conflict and diplomacy, military history, health & trauma during conflicts and historic preservation.

World renowned Native and non-Native scholars, historians, archaeologists, and military technology experts will share their valuable research over three days of paper sessions, presentations, academic posters, and book signings. This conference will be an invaluable resource for academics, professionals, and the general public while also benefiting eastern Connecticut’s businesses and local attractions.
